

INK

Hello Nurse, Meet the Bulletproof Junkies

How does an aspiring band get some attention in a celebrity-saturated town? Perhaps with an unusual name. Here are some of the bands playing in New York City in the coming week, as advertised in The Village Voice:

Architecture in Helsinki
The Big Wu
Bling Kong
Bulletproof Junkies
The Celebrity Pilots
Checkbook Biography
The Comas
The Crimea
The Dearly Beloved
Deerhoof
Drive-By Truckers
Ego Likeness
Evil Doers
The Flying Neutrinos
Garage a Trois
The Gaskets
Gonna Get Got
Gnome Dust
The Hard Tomorrows
Have Her Home by Ten
Heartless Bastards
Hector on Stilts
Hello Nurse
The Inevitable Breakups
Johnny Casino's Easy Action
Keygrip
Low Flying Jets
Makeout Room
Medications
The New Heathens
Nixon Agnew
No Redeeming Social Value
Other Passengers
Pariah
The Pillcrushers
Sin Destroyers
The Smyrk
Still Life Decay
Summer Lawns
Team Robespierre
The Urges
The Walk Ons
The Weary Boys
Wicked Little Dolls
Wide Right
Wormburner

Keith Bedford for The New York Times

...n Gauhan, left, and Ron Oberlender of the band Gowanus Corral performing at the Rodeo Bar on the East Side.